

Accusonic Products Quality Policy

It is the policy of GMD, Inc. / Accusonic Products, to continuously provide products that meet or exceed the quality expectations of our customers while maintaining our leadership in product quality reputation and customer satisfaction,

To assure that all company employees and suppliers understand and follow the requirements of ISO 9001:2000 and our Quality Management System and are provided with the resources necessary for compliance,

To gather, evaluate and introduce current productivity technology and the best manufacturing practices worldwide which parallel our product line, and

To continually measure productivity and seek continuous improvement in productivity in terms of quality, service and throughput.